

What is included in ticket purchase?

General admission includes a souvenir wine glass, samplings of wine and on stage entertainment.

Can tickets be purchased the day of onsite?

Tickets may be purchased at the gate if still available!

Do tickets have to be printed or can they be scanned off a smartphone too?

Tickets can be printed or scanned off a smartphone. Printing is not necessary if you have the ticket on your phone.

Do I have to bring my ID?

Yes, all ticket holders must show identification before being allowed to enter the Festival.

What's the earliest people can get in the festival?

You may enter at 11am.

Is re-entry permitted?

Yes, with wristband

Can you bring picnic tables, small tables, fold up tables?

As long as they fold up, small tables are fine to bring.

Can you bring umbrellas, pop up tents, covers with you?

Small umbrellas are permitted – not beach umbrellas. Pop-up tents (any size) are not permitted.

Are wagons allowed?

Little wagons to tote around chairs are allowed. Subject to inspection.

Can you purchase wine glasses after the event?

Wine glasses can be purchased during the event for $5 each at the front gate.

Can I bring pets?

No pets except service animals are permitted into the Festival.

Is this Festival suitable for children?

It's a wine event. The Festival is suitable for those aged 21 or older. There are no children's activities and it would be difficult to maneuver a stroller through the busy Festival grounds.

Where can I park to go to the Festival?

There are parking lots designated for this Festival. Or you can take the bus.

No outside food or beverage.

Event is rain or shine!